The hardest thing for us is to let you go. Now you are in a better place, with people who love and missed you. You are no longer in pain, and will suffer no more. The pain of losing you will never be gone...there is a comfort in knowing that you are at peace. How do I tell my heart to mend when the void is too great? Smile down upon us, and when we look up into the heavens your smiling face we'll see. You will never know how much you will be missed.

The family would like to say a special thanks to Creekside Hospice who was there for him and us; also, Pioneer Valley Hospital, who cared for him, especially the nurses of the third floor and the T.C.U. unit.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, November 4, 1993, at 1 p.m., at the Deseret Memorial, 36 East 700 South, Salt Lake City, where friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m., Wednesday evening, and for one hour prior to the services. Interment, Elysian Burial Gardens.
